At Mahajani Consultants we understand the customer's needs and advice them the most suited and competitive insurance from well-established insurance companies. We take pride in servicing our customer's needs and providing services during claims and settlements.

We are affiliated with the following companies for providing Life Insurance:

General Insurance

General Insurance is insurance against unforeseen events such as accidents, illness, fire, burglary etc. This type of insurance does not provide any returns, but is a protection against eventualities to life, property or assets.

We are affiliated with the following companies for providing General Insurance:

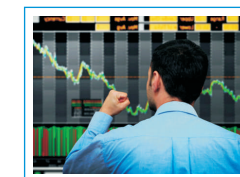

THE NEW INDIA
ASSURANCE COMPANY LTD.

Mutual Funds

A mutual fund is a professionally managed type of collective investment scheme that pools money from many investors and invests typically in investment securities such as stocks, bonds, short-term money market instruments etc. An Asset Management company (AMC), an investment management firm, is formed that manages these investments.

We at Mahajani Consultants monitor and analyze the performance of various AMCs and accordingly make recommendations. We offer advice on selecting the fund, tracking investments and evaluating fund performance periodically. We monitor the growth of the customer's investment and send valuation statements of their accounts periodically. We are affiliated with all the leading AMC fund houses for offering Mutual Fund investment options.

Equity Broking

At Mahajani Consultants, we provide advice and recommendation of stocks for investments to our customers. We are sub-broker for the BSE and the NSE and are in this system for 9 years. We have a team of knowledgeable dealers and customer relationship executives who after coordination with our research teams offer prompt, accurate and efficient service for immediate execution of orders for intraday, delivery-based as well as derivative trading.

Commodities Broking

Commodity markets in India are markets where primary products are traded on the Multi-Commodity Exchange (MCX) of India, in which they are bought and sold in standardized contracts. This type of trading is necessarily derivative trading. These include the following:

Industrial Metals (Copper, Nickel, Zinc etc.); Precious Metals (Gold, Silver); Energy (Crude Oil, Natural Gas)

Multi Commodity Exchange of India Ltd (MCX) is a state-of-the-art electronic commodity futures exchange. It has permanent recognition from the Government of India to facilitate online trading, and clearing and settlement operations for commodity futures. The MCX is regulated by the Forward Markets Commission (FMC) of India.

MCX is the world's largest exchange in Silver, the second largest in Gold, Copper and Natural Gas and the third largest in Crude Oil futures, with respect to the number of futures contracts traded.

Mahajani Investments Pvt. Ltd. is a Trading Member with the MCX. We are into the Commodity trading business since the past 4 years. We have given on an average better returns compared to our competition; per year using our investment skills, techniques and market experience.
